

Financial diplomacy MASTER PROGRAM

BLOCKS

Required disciplines

Electives

Practice

Diploma

1 COURSE

I SEMESTER

Microeconomics (Advanced)

Econometrics
(Advanced)

Forecasting methods

Information retrieval technology

Psychological foundations of effective professional communication

Psychological and pedagogical adaptation
to the professional environment

Introductory practice

II SEMESTER

Macroeconomics
(Advanced)

Risk management

Project management

World economy, global and regional institutions,
organizations and business
alliances

Sustainable development and ESG on the international and Russian agenda

International economic law

Research methodology

Global environmental and climate agenda

Business English

Project work

2 COURSE

III SEMESTER

GR management and business diplomacy

Economic security

International and regional financial, economic organizations and associations:
dialogue of integrations (CIS, EAEU, SCO, BRICS)

Electronic diplomacy

International cooperation and diplomacy/ Foreign policy and economic diplomacy

Information technology (advanced level)/ Digital technologies for searching, analyzing and presenting information

ESG finance: institutions and instruments / Corporate governance and corporate reporting based on ESG, GRI

Mediation as a means of financial diplomacy

Sustainable development:
opportunities and potential of Russia

Financial accounting and reporting

Project work

IV SEMESTER

Practice according to the profile of professional activity

Undergraduate practice

Preparation for defense and defense of final qualifying work